

Hoppy Spring, Friends of Faucher Law!

John and his terrific staff are here to help with any problems with the IRS, FTB, or California's other alphabet-soup tax agencies – the EDD or CDTFA.

Faucher Law steps in after tax returns have been filed, and you've gotten an unpleasant Audit Notice or (worse) a threatening Notice of Levy. While we don't prepare tax returns, we work with excellent accountants and are happy to make referrals.

If you have unfiled back taxes, file them NOW! The IRS gets uglier than a rotten egg with failure-to-file penalties, and it will prep a substitute-for-return with no deductions or exemptions, meaning you'll pay the maximum in taxes. Trust me: you don't want to speak with John after the IRS has filed a substitute for your unfiled returns. It's always a more complicated and expensive problem to fix than if you filed the return before the IRS did.

At Faucher Law, we like chocolate bunnies and we like speaking with the IRS.
