Options if you can't pay in full

Consider the following options if you can't pay in full right now:

Pay over time

Visit irs.gov/installmentagreements to learn more about installment agreements, which allow you to pay your balance over time as long as you stay current with your filing obligations. If you qualify, you can also apply online to save time and money at irs.gov/OPA.

Settle your tax debt

If you can't pay your balance in full, an offer in compromise could allow you to settle your tax debt for less than the full amount you owe. You can use our online pre-qualifier tool at irs.gov/offers to see if you qualify and learn more about offers in compromise.

Temporarily delay collection

In cases of financial hardship, the IRS may temporarily delay collection until your situation improves. Visit irs.gov/delay to learn more.

IRS Help

For online assistance, you can visit irs.gov/help.

If you can't find what you need online, you can call the IRS at 800-829-8374.

If you have an approved payment arrangement, or have applied for one, continue making payments per that agreement. Remember that interest continues to be charged until you fully pay your balance.

If you are a debtor in a bankruptcy case, this notice is for your information only and is not intended to seek payment outside of the bankruptcy process for taxes due before you filed your petition. You will not receive another notice for the balance due while the automatic stay remains in effect. For more information about Bankruptcy visit: irs.gov/declarebankruptcy.
